Realpaks

2021

Model: SLJ-14 F

A European footwear manufacturer Realpaks Ltd., was founded in 1996 and is successfully operating on the European footwear markets. Our company has its own full production cycle from raw materials -masterbatches, additives and polymer compounds EVA, PVC and TPE - to finished footwear products.

We care about our consumers' health and comfort making all our shoes orthopedic, waterproof and long-lasting. To ensure this, all our materials and products get certified* and are subjected to rigorous testing in our own laboratories before entering markets.

Offering supreme comfort, Realpaks Ltd. does not sacrifice the look. Our all-season collections include a wide range of styles from Fashionable to Casual or Outdoors, and different models from boots and wellies to clogs, sandals and flip-flops for kids, women and men. We produce new models and designs annually, that is why, apart from being able to offer high standards of quality at competitive prices. We can also guarantee fast & short deliveries from our production facilities in Ukraine, customized approach and service.
